1	Statement	Everyone
	Embassy English, as an international language school, understands the obligations under the Counter Terrorism & Security Act 2015 to prevent people of all ages being radicalised or drawn into terrorism and seeks to meet its obligations in the ways shown below, after setting the context.
2	Context
	-Embassy English London accepts students from 16 and over throughout the year and 14+ in the summer months from many different countries around the world.
	- In its busiest weeks it may have 250 students, 25 staff and work with 150 homestay providers.
	- The school has always promoted a multi-cultural environment where respect for and tolerance of others beliefs is required.
	- The school is located on the edge of Greenwich.
3	Strong Leadership	CD
	- Responsibility for ensuring Prevent Duty is met is with the Designated Safeguarding Lead , Yvonne Silk Jones.
	- Responsibility for the Prevent risk assessment/action plan (see point 4 below) lies with the Centre Director.
	- Their duties are to ensure delivery of an effective risk assessment/action plan and
4	policy as outlined here.  Risk Assessment of current situation and Action Plan for future	DSL
4	- A risk assessment/action plan has been produced showing what is already being	DSL done and what still needs to be done; it will be reviewed and updated at least annually.
5	Working with local partners	CD or DSL
	- Make and maintain contact with the local police/local authority Prevent	CD 01 D3L coordinator to understand their role and the support available.
	- Make contact with local authority to ascertain other useful local agencies.
	- Develop local area Prevent links with other similar organisations.
	- Share information with all local organisations as appropriate.
6	Understanding terminology	To be
	- Radicalisation: act or process of making a person more radical or favouring of	transmitted extreme or fundamental changes in political, economic or social conditions,	to staff,
	institutions or habits of the mind.	students,
	- Extremism *: holding extreme political or religious views which may deny right to	homestays, any group or individual. Can be expressed in vocal or active opposition to	group

	(iv) respectful tolerance of different faiths or beliefs.	adults
	* NB: extremism can refer to a range of views, e.g. racism, homophobia, right-wing ideology, as well as any religious extremism.
7	Understanding risk of extremism	To be
	- Staff, students & other adults (group leaders, homestays etc.) may arrive at	transmitted
	school already holding extremist views.	to staff
	- Or, whilst part of the school, they may be influenced by a range of factors: global events, peer pressure, media, family views, and extremist materials via hardcopy or online, inspirational speakers, friends or relatives being harmed, social networks.

	- People who are vulnerable are more likely to be influenced.
	- Their vulnerability could stem from a range of causes: loss of identity or sense of belonging, isolation, exclusion, mental health problems, sense of injustice, personal crisis, victim of hate crime or discrimination, bereavement	561.
