

Improve your English

before you start at an International Study Centre or Bellerbys College

I want to achieve my dream of studying in the UK.

my dream

I apply, but as I don't meet the right level of English, I receive a conditional offer to study at my chosen International Study Centre or Bellerbys College.

Embassy English also offers a place to study English in the UK.

my offer

I'll arrive in the UK for my Embassy English course. At the end of the course I take a free UKVI IELTS test. If I meet the requirements I can confirm my place at the International Study Centre or Bellerbys College.

my course

my visa

I will return home to apply for a Tier 4 visa (if required).

my arrival

I return to the UK to start at the International Study Centre or Bellerbys College

Improve your language skills with Embassy English
If you are a student with university ambitions
but don't have the necessary English language skills
to begin a course at an International Study Centre
or Bellerbys College, then an Embassy English course could be the right option for you.

Benefits of this Offering:

- Choice of studying English at one of 4 Embassy English locations (London Greenwich, Cambridge, Brighton, or Hastings)
- Conditional offer from your university of choice
- Free UKVI IELTS exam included in all Embassy enrolments of 12+ weeks

Bellerbys College and International Study Centre locations throughout the UK

*for progression from Leeds International Study Centre.
This study plan option may not be available at all International Study Centres.
For full information, contact your local Study Group representative.