

Vanderbilt YMCA - New York Residence Fact Sheet

The residence The guest rooms at the Vanderbilt YMCA offer private single and shared rooms with daily housekeeping service. Each guest room has a TV, air conditioner, small refrigerator and includes linens and towels. Shared showers and toilets are in the hall. Guests who want to exercise can take advantage of the recreation facilities, including a gym, two indoor swimming pools, fitness classes, and sauna/steam room. There is a small communal kitchen for cooking, a lounge, and laundry room. A 24-hour security desk means that guests can check in overnight, any day of the week and are free to come and go without worrying about a curfew.

The area Located in Manhattan's Midtown East, the residence is near to the Grand Central Station transit hub. The United Nations and the Chrysler Building are nearby. Within walking distance are restaurants, grocery stores, pharmacies, banks, a post office, plus world-class 5th Ave shopping, and classic New York City sites such as Rockefeller Center and St. Patrick's Cathedral.
